2018 Excellence in Pavement Preservation Award

The International Slurry Surfacing Association will honor public officials and agencies that have made outstanding contributions to the Pavement Preservation industry. The award is presented to an Owner/Agency or Engineering Firm responsible for specifying and managing a pavement preservation program utilizing the applications represented by ISSA (slurry surfacing, micro surfacing, chip sealing, cape sealing, crack treating, and other asphalt emulsion-based surface treatments).

All nominations must be submitted by a member of the ISSA. Submissions must be completed on the ISSA Award for Excellence in Pavement Preservation.

The following rules will govern the selection:

1. The nomination ballot must be completed in full and delivered with supporting documentation to ISSA Headquarters by November 30, 2017. Supporting documentation may include job stories describing the program, copies of magazine or newspaper articles, resumes, etc.
2. Late or incomplete nominations will not be considered
3. Nominations will be forwarded to the ISSA Awards Committee.
4. Notice of Intent to Award will be issued to each approved nominee by the Executive Director in January 2017.
5. Winning Nominee(s) will be notified following final approval and presented with the award at the upcoming Annual Meeting.
